

1. Please change Journal's url as extension url as follows

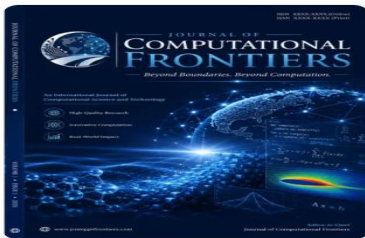

<https://gyrespress.com/jcf/>

Since we are going to add some more journals with the same domain, we need to have extension

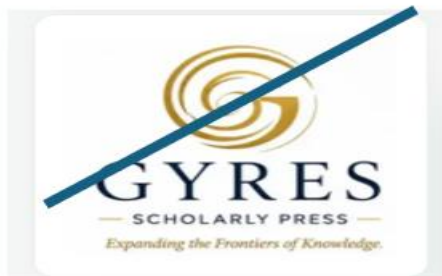

2. Mobile look is not appealing - Hence please make the following changes

Remove the publisher box from the left side bar and take it to right side bar (first box)

In place of this publisher - please include the following journal first page ,

The following two left side bar -boxes are not necessary -please remove them.

From the main middle section remove the following image . Keep only the text

3. Please remove this section (Featured articles)

Please remove this section from articles section given at the admin/backside.
